

All About Quality Consultancy (AAQC) is a registered 'one-person company'. It has specific expertise in quality assessment and evaluation, curriculum development, training and consultancy and project development, project management and project evaluation.

All About Quality Consultancy (AAQC) is an expert organisation in facilitating scientific methodology, teaching, and training didactics, project development and project evaluation and impact study based in Eindhoven, the Netherlands. It provides consultancy, training, advice, and support in developing and implementing Quality Systems and Quality Culture in Organisations providing Social Service and VET. It has been created in 2017 by Guus van Beek, after over 25 years of experience on development and implementation of quality and quality management systems in social services.

Mr. Van Beek worked as key expert for the European Platform for Rehabilitation and has been responsible for the development, the promotion, the capacity building and the consultancy of the European Quality in Social Services programs, a quality approach and certification program for quality in the social sector. He has his roots in teaching pedagogic, educational psychology, didactic of teaching and organizational change at the University of Applied science in The Netherlands. He has a long-standing experience in presenting the issue of quality and quality management in the social sector in plenary sessions at international conferences. As chair of the CEN workshop twenty-one he contributed to the development of the Common Quality Framework for Social Services of General Interest and was consulted for the development of the European Quality

Framework for Social Services by the working group on quality of the Social Protection Committee of the European Union. He has a longstanding experience in providing technical expertise to European projects, mainly in the context of quality in VET for persons with a disability, the integration of people with disabilities into society and the labour market, developing curricula for sport instructors providing sport activities for persons with disabilities, implementing a Persons Centered Approach in Vocational Education and Training to persons with a disability, development of curricula for professionals promoting quality of Life of persons with intellectual disability, practical tools for monitoring and improving the quality of services for the benefit of the service users and the development of instruments for assessing Life Skills